

Edmonton Diocesan Council Book Project 2024

In response to the request that the books have an obvious tie to our Catholic Faith, we reached out to Kathleen, a Religious Education Consultant with Edmonton Catholic Schools for her suggestions.

Based on her list, this year we have chosen 2 books, so that each council can choose the book that is best suited for the school they will be giving it to.

The books chosen are as follow:

The Light of the Saints	Listening for God

Kids require a meaningful Catholic book that is also entertaining. Light of the Saints is a light-based interactive children's book that tells the story of 12 saints from around the world. To see hidden images of their miracles and heroic acts, shine a light behind the page. Light of the Saints by Cory Heimann is the answer to a parent's prayer to teach their children about the saints.	Through bright and captivating illustrations and a compelling, interactive storyline, Listening for God, by bestselling children's book author Katie Warner, shares the biblical story of the prophet Elijah to help children understand the importance of silence in listening for God's still, small voice and uncovering His adventurous plan for their lives.
