Celebrate Mass at the Divine Mercy Shrine on the Feast Day of St. Faustina!

POLAND AND DIVINE MERCY

This pilgrimage offers travelers the opportunity to visit a variety of sites related to Saint Faustina and Pope John Paul II, and the renowned Divine Mercy Shrine in Krakow. Pilgrims will also visit Poland's most important pilgrimage destination, dedicated to Our Blessed Mother, the Jasna Gora Monastery where you will pray at the miraculous image of the Black Madonna, Our Lady of Czestochowa. Admire the iconic Wawel Castle and Cathedral, located atop a hill, and the vibrant capital of Warsaw. Sample the delightful cuisine of Poland and engage in prayerful reflection of the Divine Mercy.

In 2000, St. John Paul II canonized St. Faustina and consecrated the Second Sunday of Easter in the Roman Catholic Church calendar to Divine Mercy. The international epicenter of Divine Mercy devotion is the Shrine of Divine Mercy located in Lągowiki, Krakow, Poland. It is the final resting place of Saint Faustina, who died on Oct. 5th, 1938 and houses a chapel dedicated to Saint Joseph within the grounds of the convent of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy, with whom the saint was affiliated.

PRAGUE AND THE MIRACULOUS STATUE OF THE INFANT JESUS

"The more you honor me, the more I will bless you." - Infant Jesus speaking to Father Cyril (c.1635)

Many saints have been devotees of the Infant Jesus. Many graces, blessings, favors and miraculous healings have been received by many who petitioned before the Infant Jesus. The list of blessings attributed by devotees of the Infant Jesus is endless: health restored, financial problems solved, gifts of peace of mind and soul, and innumerable healings, both physical and spiritual. God has been astonishingly generous in blessing those who have been devoted to his Infant Son.

In this pilgrimage, a visit to Prague includes different castles, cathedrals and the Church of Our Lady Victorious Church where you'll be able to pray to the Miraculous Statue of the the Infant Jesus. Offer your prayers and petitions with Child-like confidence to God our Father.

VIENNA, AUSTRIA

Vienna, the capital of Austria, is famous for its classical music, its imperial palaces, its art treasures, and its architecture. The highlight of the visit will be the St. Stephen Cathedral, Austria's most eminent Gothic edifice.

CROATIA

In Croatia, pilgrims will experience 3 of its most beautiful cities. First stop is Zagreb. Zagreb, the capital of Croatia, has a deep, rich history. This 2,000-year-old city was, at one time, the second largest city in the Roman Empire. Today, the city is still the capital of the Republic of Croatia. Highlight is the visit to Marija Bistrica, an old marian Shrine of the Black Madonna. Then experience the city of Split, where the Diocletian Palace, situated in the heart of Split, is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Visit the Cathedral of St. Dominus, considered as the oldest Catholic cathedral in the world. Next, visit Dubrovnik. The old city of Dubrovnik, in the Adriatic Sea, is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. At the center of the old city is the Stari Grad Plain, where you'll find the fortress of Dubrovnik, the Cathedral, the Franciscan Monastery and the Palace of the Rector.

MEDJUGORJE, BOSNIA & HERZEGOVINA

Medjugorje is a small village in Bosnia and Herzegovina that has attracted thousands of pilgrims from all around the world since 1981, when six children reported seeing the Virgin Mary. Since the start of the Medjugorje apparitions in June 1981, this pilgrimage site has become a beacon of faith and spiritual growth for millions of people and thousands of prayer groups. Countless individuals have encountered the grace of God and felt its presence in their hearts on this holy site, often leading to a renewed sense of purpose.
