

Edmonton Diocesan Book Project Winter 2022 ~ Spring 2023

This year we have chosen 4 different books, so that each council can choose a title(s) that best suit the school they will be giving the books to.

The books chosen reflect the theme of “Walking Together”. Each book has been written by an Indigenous Author. All books are available in English and French.

If ordering multiple copies (10+) of the same title, you can order through Audrey’s Books Edmonton and they will apply a discount.

The books chosen are as follow:

On the Trapline By David A. Robertson	I Hope By Monique Gray Smith	When We Are Kind By Monique Gray Smith	What's My Superpower? By Aviaq Johnston
This is a heartfelt story about memory, imagination and intergenerational connection that perfectly captures the experience of a young child's wonder as he is introduced to places and stories that hold meaning for his family.	Poignant words from award-winning Indigenous author Monique Gray Smith about all the hopes adults have for the young people in their lives. The hopes we have for the children in our lives are endless. We want our young people to thrive and experience all that life has to offer, but we also feel protective of them.	This beautiful picture book looks at how the simple act of being kind, to others and oneself, affects all aspects of a child's life.	Nalvana feels like all of her friends have some type of superpower. She has friends with super speed (who always beat her in races), friends who can fly (or at least jump from a swing and seem to fly across the playground), and friends who are better than her at a million other things. But when her mom shows Nalvana that she is unique and special, she realizes that her superpower was right in front of her all along.
