OUR LADY OF GOOD COUNSEL, PRAY FOR US

April 2015

My Dear Friends in Christ,

Unchanging and Forever New

These words of St. Augustine were spoken by him as attributes of God. They could also be used to describe the CWL. When the CWL was founded no one could imagine it would evolve to what it is today

- a voice of social justice
- a voice of moral value
- a voice of common sense.

The CWL continues to evolve. It is not a museum piece but vibrant and active in all aspects of life

- in the parish
- in the community
- in the country.

Whenever and wherever a voice of reason is required, the CWL is there – speaking for those who cannot speak for themselves or for those who choose to remain silent. Our church, our province, our country have all benefited from the efforts of the CWL. These efforts may at times seem not to bear much fruit but they influence the consciences of many. The CWL all too well remember the old Latin adage: “To be silent means consent”.

With the grace of God and the intercession of the Holy Mother may the work of the CWL continue as it faces new challenges.

May God bless you all.

P.S. The egg salad sandwiches at funeral lunches are and always have been superior to those of Tim Hortons and Subway—a sure sign of God's approval of your efforts.
